

Aaron Burton

Associate

T: (303) 894-4435

ABurton@fwlaw.com

Aaron represents clients in trust and estate planning, administration, and litigation, as well as in complex tax and business law matters. His practice focuses on guiding individuals, families, and businesses through sophisticated estate planning strategies, trust administration, and fiduciary matters.

Aaron's experience includes:

- Successfully crafting and administering estate plans for clients with net worths ranging from $500,000 to over $100 million.
- Representing clients in trust and estate disputes involving will contests, fiduciary claims, and multi-jurisdictional issues.
- Drafting a wide array of instruments, such as intentionally defective grantor trusts (IDGTs), spousal lifetime access trusts (SLATs), qualified personal residence trusts (QPRTs), and irrevocable life insurance trusts (ILITs)
- Advising on business formation and governance, reviewing, and drafting operating agreements and partnership agreements for entities.

Aaron served as a law clerk to the Honorable Marcelo Kopcow of the 19th Judicial District of Colorado and a judicial intern in the Denver Probate Court.

Education

University of Denver Sturm College of Law, J.D., 2016
University of Denver Sturm College of Law, LL.M., 2016
Troy University, B.S., Criminal Justice, 2013
Defense Language Institute, U.S. Army, Arabic, 2010

Colorado

Practice Areas

Corporate
Wealth Planning, Trusts, and Estates
Estate and Gift Planning
Probate and Trust Administration

Recognitions

Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch – Trusts and Estates, 2025

Professional Affiliations

- Liaison between CBA Tax Section and CBA Trust & Estate Section
- CBA Tax Section
 - Member at Large