

Christine M. Francescani

Of Counsel

T: (303) 894-4435

cfrancescani@fwlaw.com

Christine assists clients in getting their projects off the ground and sees them all the way through completion. She focuses on land use law, regulatory issues, local government law, and creating and reforming codes.

She draws on years of experience working for local government. Most recently, Christine served as Assistant City and County Attorney for the Broomfield City and County Attorney's Office and prior to that as Assistant County Attorney for the Adams County Attorney's Office. She draws on her insider connections and knowledge to see all sides of a project and to help it come to fruition.

Education

University of Florida Levin College of Law, J.D., cum laude, 2004

University of Florida, B.A., English, with honors, 2001

Bar Admissions

Colorado

Practice Areas

Real Estate

Land Use, Zoning, and Development Entitlements

Zoning Rewrites / Regulatory Reform

Professional Affiliations

- Colorado Bar Association
- CBA/DBA Professionalism Coordinating Council
- Adams-Broomfield Bar Association

Community Involvement

- Colorado Jazz Workshop, Trombone, 2016–2018; 2020–Present
- Denver Urban Gardens Master Community Gardener Volunteer Program Class of 2017; Volunteer 2019–Present