SParadis@fwlaw.com

Sarah helps her commercial real estate clients through all aspects of real estate transactions. She has an array of experience with acquisitions, dispositions, property management, and leasing. She advises clients on purchase and sale agreements, amendments, due diligence, closing documents, surveys, easements, zoning reports, restrictive covenants, environmental reports, loan documents, subordination agreements, non-disclosure agreements, commercial leases, vendor agreements, contractor agreements, property management agreements, tenant default matters, and property management matters. She also helps clients with telecommunications transactions and vessel purchases and sales.

Sarah has the unique perspective of previously working in-house for a real estate development and investment company which she draws to help her clients efficiently and effectively complete their projects.

Outside of work, Sarah uses her real estate insights as a member of her HOA's Design Review Committee.
