thanrahan@fwlaw.com

Taryn represents clients in complex civil litigation matters in state and federal courts. She has experience drafting and arguing motions, managing large-scale discovery, preparing witnesses for depositions, and developing persuasive briefs in trial and appellate proceedings. She brings strong analytical skills, strategic insight, and a detail-oriented approach to every stage of the litigation process.

Before entering private practice, Taryn served as a judicial law clerk to Justice David K. Thomson of the New Mexico Supreme Court, where she drafted opinions and advised on high-level civil, criminal, and regulatory cases.
