

)

Family Business Succession Planning

We offer a unique service to business owners by integrating our business experience with our estate planning and tax experience to design unique and successful plans for business succession and wealth transfers. Our clients include family-owned businesses, farms, ranches, real estate developments and other assets. Our various areas of legal, tax, and business knowledge allow us to provide comprehensive business succession and wealth transfer planning, integrated with the family's values, and dynamics.