

Litigation

Fairfield and Woods' litigation group includes more than 20 attorneys experienced in all types of civil litigation and arbitration. Our litigation attorneys recognize that each case is unique and strive to provide the best solution for each client's situation. Your dispute demands and deserves special attention and an analysis unique to the situation. This requires the strength and experience we have developed during the 80 plus years we have practiced in federal and state courts, as well as before administrative agencies.

We proudly continue our tradition of successfully litigating all types of commercial litigation—from complex corporate multi-party cases to individuals' smaller but equally important disputes. While we are experienced and successful in the courtroom, our goal is to provide cost-effective results, whether in or out of court.
